

HOME & DESIGN Live! a rousing success

Actress Jane Seymour exhibited her artwork at this year's event, which introduced homeowners to dozens of design professionals

HOME & DESIGN Live! 2004, which took place May 29th and 30th at the Ritz-Carlton, Tysons Corner, was a rousing success. Sponsored by HOME & DESIGN magazine, the event attracted homeowners from across the region, who came to gather home-improvement and design ideas and consult with an array of exhibitors, from luxury-home builders to fine-furniture dealers, who were on hand to showcase their products and professional services and discuss the latest trends with attendees.

"HOME & DESIGN Live! introduces upscale homeowners to a variety of professionals in the interior design and home furnishings arena," says HOME & DESIGN magazine publisher Tod Herbers. "Exhibitors at this year's event included builders and remodelers, interior designers and architects, landscaping companies, kitchen and bath experts, art galleries and the list goes on. It's a great way for discriminating homeowners to find the resources they need all under one roof."

Actress Jane Seymour, who is also an artist, was on hand at the event to meet fans and exhibit her colorful paintings. "Jane is a very talented artist. Attendees were thrilled to meet her—and to see her artwork," says Herbers.

HOME & DESIGN Live! 2005 will take place next year on April 23rd and 24th at the Sheraton Premiere at Tysons Corner. Mark your calendars and read upcoming issues of HOME & DESIGN for more details. For exhibitor information, please contact Karen Burnett at (703) 426-1949.
